

Here To Help

Bea Fenton

School Home Support Practitioner

Available on Thursday & Friday

I am employed by an independent education charity called School-Home Support (SHS). I work in partnership with your school to support children and their families to get the most from the educational opportunities on offer.

My role includes...

- ✔ Acting as a link between home and school
- ✔ Listening to you
- ✔ Offering practical suggestions and advice
- ✔ Going to meetings with you
- ✔ Promoting regular attendance
- ✔ Arranging adult learning courses
- ✔ Facilitating a parent drop in
- ✔ Supporting you

School-Home Support (SHS)

has been a Centre for excellence in school-home work for over thirty years.

Today, SHS is the leading independent provider of School-Home Support Services, We offer practical and emotional support for children and young people and their families across the country.

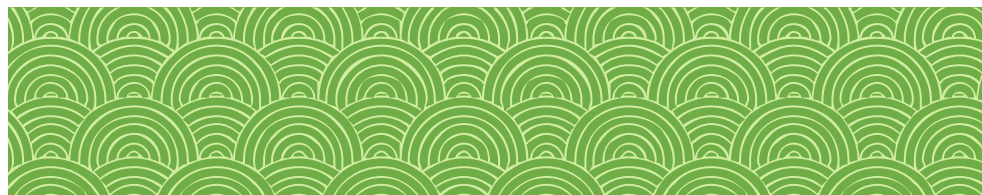

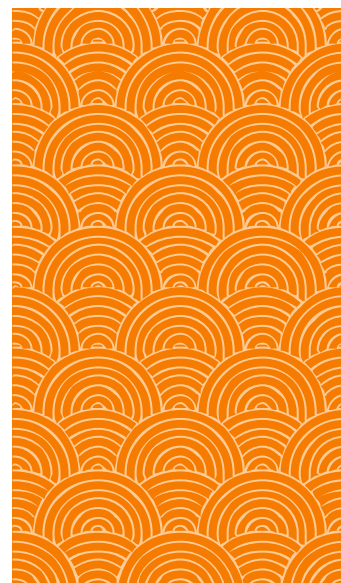

For more information about SHS, please go to www.shs.org.uk.

I can help with information and advice on:

- ✔ Fitting in at school
- ✔ Housing and money worries
- ✔ Feeling happy and confident
- ✔ Benefits and support
- ✔ New starts, changes and settling in
- ✔ Supporting your child's learning
- ✔ Getting to school on time
- ✔ School attendance
- ✔ Mental or physical health issues
- ✔ Family problems
- ✔ Behaviour at home and school
- ✔ School grades and results
- ✔ Courses, training and volunteering
- ✔ Bereavement and family breakdown

Confidentiality

I do not and will not tell anyone anything that you tell me without your permission, except if I believe a child/ person is at risk or it may have an impact on a child's learning or well- being.

If you are feeling worried, concerned or just need a bit of advice, you are not the only parent in the school that feels that way. I am ready to help you find solutions; that is what I am here for.

For more information, please come along and have a chat with me.

I will be available either at the school reception area or in the school playground
