Why choose Rokesly Junior School?

- High expectations and consistently good academic outcomes.
- Strong transition programme and partnerships support pupils' move to both junior and secondary school.
- Challenged by a full and rounded curriculum and varied enrichment opportunities, pupils are equipped with the skills, knowledge and experiences for the future.
- A diverse community which brings together pupils from a multitude of backgrounds. We respect and celebrate the talents, aspirations and individuality of everyone.
- Local, national and international links broaden children's understanding of their world.
- Spacious grounds allow us to embed quality outdoor learning opportunities into our curriculum.

Call the school office on 020 8348 0290 to book your place at one of our open events today.
