Anti-bullying week	15th-19th November is anti-bullying week. In class we have discussed what bullying is, what we can do if we see others being bullied and how we can be kind to each other. For your homework, we would like you to become anti-bullying superheroes for yourself and others. Think about how you can be kind to yourself and those around you. Your task is to design an anti-bullying superhero poster on a sheet of A4 paper to display your ideas on how we can stop bullying and encourage kindness towards each other. Take a look at the poster on the next page for ideas. Be as creative as you can!

Reading	Remember to read every day at home and fill in your reading record . Also it would be hugely beneficial if your adults and carers could read to you as well! Reading records should be in school every day with your reading book.
Next Week's Learning	Maths: formal written methods of subtraction and bar models to represent word problems.	English: Instruction Texts

BE AN ANTI-BULLYING SUPERHERO

We can all do our bit to make sure our school is an anti-bullying school. Here is how to be an anti-bullying superhero.

HELPING OTHERS

Be open to new friendships

Value friendships with a range of people, especially those who may not find it easy to make friends.

Be there for others

In the playground or classroom, look out for people who may not be included and ask them to join in.

Admit when you are wrong

If you are unkind to someone, apologise and make a change in your behaviour.

HELPING YOURSELF

Know when a friendship is healthy

A healthy friendship should make us feel positive, supported and safe. If you are unsure about a friendship, talk to an adult you trust.

Be assertive

If someone wants you to do or say something that makes you feel uncomfortable, like being unkind to someone else, it is OK to say no.

Take five

If you are feeling angry or annoyed about something a friend has done, take five minutes to complete a calming exercise, like square breathing.

Are you worried about bullying? If you are, talk to a trusted adult at school or at home, or call Childline on 0800 1111.
